Monsters Forward Rob Kolander Named National Player of the Week Kolander Records 3 Goals, 1 Assist in 11-0 Victory in Bakersfield

Fresno, Calif. — Fresno Monsters forward Rob Kolander was named American Junior Hockey's National Player of the Week for the week of October 19th. The Ann Arbor, Michigan-native scored 3 goals and 1 assist in Sunday's 11-0 victory in Bakersfield over the Condors. Kolander has tallied 8 goals and 8 assists for 16 points with the Monsters this season.

Fresno returns home this weekend for a three-game series against the defending Western States Hockey League champions, the Phoenix Polar Bears. On October 23rd and 24th at Selland Arena doors open at 6:30pm, games start at 7:30pm. Friday, October 23rd is College Night at Selland Arena. Show your college I.D. at the box office and get in for $5. On Sunday, October 25th the Monsters take on Phoenix at Gateway Ice Center in a matinee 10:00am tilt. Admission is just $5.

Season tickets are still available through the Fresno Monsters office. Individual game tickets are on sale now at the Selland Arena box office, online at www.ticketmaster.com, and at all Ticketmaster locations.
